Dear Parents,

As we continue to finalize the scheduling process at PHHS, we would like all parents to log into Genesis to review, with your child, the course selections that you made for the 2017-18 school year. As you know, what your child ultimately receives as his/her schedule might look slightly different than these requests due to scheduling conflicts. As you review these selections, please remember that our counselors have been meeting with students to discuss conflicts and to schedule alternate classes based on your child's educational needs and interests. If you feel course changes need to be made, we are happy to receive requests for schedule changes up to June 23rd. Please contact your child's counselor to discuss any changes you feel are necessary. On June 30th, your child's 2017-2018 schedule of classes (without teacher or periods) will be posted to Genesis. Please be advised that after June 30th, schedule changes will only be considered for the following reasons: completion of summer school programs (remedial or pre-approved enrichment) and to fulfill graduation requirements.

As always, please contact your child's school counselor with any questions or concerns you may have.

Sincerely,

Mr. DiSanto
